

OVER THE WORLD IN A WEEK.

—By the laws of Texas a homestead can not be touched for debt.

—A Philadelphia man wears a pair of shoes made from elephant hide.

—The bank of Lyons, supposed to be one of the strongest in Kansas, has suspended.

—An earthquake shock lasting about ten seconds was recently felt at Portland and Salem, Oregon.

—Roswell P. Flower has been nominated by the Democrats of New York as candidate for Governor.

—Potatoes are so plentiful in Southern California that they are offered at 5 cents a sack in the ground.

—The Farmers Alliance in Iowa has split, one faction desiring to take independent political action while the other does not.

—An armed desperado in Florida stepped into a negro church and compelled the deacons to take up a collection for his benefit.

—The big cotton strike in Arkansas, which Humphrey, of the Colored Alliance, said would take place on the 12th inst., failed to materialize.

—At Port Huron, Mich., Arthur McDonald remonstrated with Thelo Kyne for beating Mrs. Kyne, and was shot dead. Kyne escaped to the woods.

—Oliver C. Wilson, Jr., paying teller of the Produce National bank of Philadelphia, has been arrested charged with embezzling $2,500 of the bank's funds.

—One man at Evans, Colo., threshed the wheat of 100 acres of his farm and got 3,500 bushels for his trouble. From twenty acres of barley he got 671 bushels.

—In St. Louis Maggie Dolan had her love, Eugene Shire, arrested for assault to kill. He got out on bail, sought her, and cut her throat and his own. Both will die.

—In Nickerson, Kas., the other day, a justice of the peace was undecided which side of a lawsuit was right, so he left it to the lawyers to decide upon a game of checkers.

—An old lady of Salina, Kas., begins her Monday morning prayer by saying: "O, Lord, Thou hast probably read in the morning papers how Thy day was desecrated yesterday."

—At Zanesville, Ohio, Mrs. Hannah Wilson, a widow, aged 45, was killed by her horse running away. She was thrown from a cart, being caught in one of the wheels and dragged half a mile.

—Another crazy Indian has turned up among the Cheyennes, and the indications are that all the Messiah and ghost dance foolishness, which had such disastrous results last winter, will be set going again.

—A man fishing at Jersey, England, was caught by the rising tide, and a boat had to be put out to rescue him. The next day a magistrate sentenced him to eight days' hard labor "for the trouble he had caused."

—Ten thousand Colorado people assembled at Rocky Ford recently to celebrate a mysterious festival styled "watermelon day." Each person present was made the recipient of a watermelon, and a strange and gory repast followed.

—A Texas mother, Mrs. Geo. Griffin, considers it her duty to increase the Democratic majority in that State rapidly. She has given birth to seven children, all of whom are doing well, in the past ten months—triplets and quartets.

—Vermont has a moonshiner against whom nearly a thousand indictments have been found. Should he be convicted in each case, he would have to serve all his life and thirty or forty years over, unless, of course, he should happen to die in the meantime.

—L. P. Sammons, a wealthy farmer residing near Bellaire, Ohio, was caught stealing wheat from the granary of a poor widow. He is worth about $20,000 and has plenty of grain of his own, but some 500 bushels of wheat and oats that have been missed in that neighborhood were traced to his granaries. He is in jail.

—John Eli is jail at Columbus, Ohio, on the charge of stealing a whole barber shop. J. H. Whitmer is the victim. Eli was given a key to the shop by one of the barbers to give to Whitmer, the proprietor, and proceeded to have the fixtures moved in a transfer wagon. He was arrested after he had disposed of the goods, which are valued at $1,000.

STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

An apple weighing a pound and a half is the product of a tree in Maysville.

THE Winchester Fair association was blessed with fine weather and the Fair was a financial success.

A POST OFFICE has been established at Donnelly, Lee county, and Jesse H. Smyth has been appointed postmaster.

In Bath county, last week, George F. Green was sentenced to the penitentiary for life for shooting one Davidson from ambush.

Miss SUSIE McPHERSON, living at Stanford, Ky., attempted to cut her throat because her father—a minister—objected to her lover.

THE Gilliland brothers, who were at the head of a gang of murderers and supposed to have killed Sheriff McHargue at Somerset, were hanged by a mob.

THE Breckenridge News says with pardonable pride that the last ten years have wrought marvelous changes in Breckenridge county's social and commercial prosperity.

A PROTECTIVE society has been organized by the girls of Scottsville. They propose to boycott young men who do not give them the attention they deserve. Peace may be secured, however, by a treaty of reciprocity.

MIDDLESBOROUGH gave a ball in honor of the delegates to the State Sunday School convention. The Magic City has its own way of doing things, but the connection between a ball and a Sunday School convention is not apparent.

At Knottsville, Davies county, last week, Dave Gaddes stabbed and killed Arthur Bell. Gaddes was placed in jail. Bell had been drinking and had fallen from a log. Gaddes helped him up and received a cursing and a blow for thanks.

BENNETT H. YOUNG, Judge Richards and other capitalists interested in the Richmond, Nicholasville and Irvine rail road, are in Lee county asking an additional subscription of $15,000, to the building of the road, with prospects of success.

THE City and County Assessors in McCracken county are taking an unfair advantage of the real estate boomers by keeping notes for the next assessment of values of city lots and county lands, as fixed by the owners in their offers and prices for sale.

THE oldest horse in the United States is owned in Louisville and is 47 years old. He bears the scar of a gunshot wound received at the battle of Buena Vista during the Mexican war. He lives on boiled corn and other soft food as he has lost all his teeth.

THERE are 117,997 acres of land in Woodford county, assessed for 1891 at $5,256,905. The average assessed value is $44.55 per acre, being a higher valuation than in any other county in the State except Fayette, whose average value is $58.85 per acre.

JOHN LOREE, of Nebraska, filed suit in the United States Court, at Covington, recently, against 160 defendants. The action is to recover some 40,000 acres of land in Powell and Lee counties. The suit involves $1,000,000. Mr. Loree claims title through a Virginia patent issued by Patrick Henry, as Governor.

LAST week the store of L. N. Phipps, at Morehead, was robbed and burned. Loss on store and house $4,350; insurance $2,750. Mr. Phipps thinks the store was undoubtedly robbed and then set on fire, as the first one to arrive found the doors open and various articles of clothing were found in a lot adjoining the store as if the thieves had dropped them in their flight.

THE recent term of Estill Circuit court was the most important ever held in the county. On Monday, the 14th, William Packett was sentenced to be hanged on December 4; on the 15th his son, Ambrose, was sentenced to the penitentiary for life, and on the day following another son, Tobe, received a life sentence. These three clubbed a peaceful citizen to death on last November election day.

THE Maysville Commonwealth has the following story: As an engineer on the C. & O. was approaching Vanceburg he saw a man lying on the track ahead. He applied the air-brakes and stopped the train just in time to save the man's life. Thinking the man drunk, he gave him a kick to arouse him. It turned out that he was not drunk, but in a fit, and when he recovered he had the engineer arrested and fined $9 for assault. Such is gratitude.
